

November Events

Tuesdays & Thursdays, November 3-12 > Pronouncing American English

5-6:30 p.m. • N417/423 (Parnassus)

Relevant to Multiple Populations

Through individual assessments, small group exercises and informal video recordings, participants learn to overcome their main pronunciation challenges and build confidence in their ability to speak clearly and be understood in public. Pre-registration required. Go to www.acteva.com/booking.cfm?bevaaid=190038 to register.

Wednesday, November 4 > Pharmacy: PLS Internship Resume Review Clinic

5-7 p.m. • Location TBA

Pharmacy Students

Third- and fourth-year students from PLS will meet individually with first- and second-year students to provide feedback on pharmacy internship resumes. Opportunities to sign-up for a 20-minute resume review appointment will be made available prior to the event.

Thursdays, November 5-19 > Nuts And Bolts of Manuscript Writing

3-5 p.m. • Multiple Locations (Parnassus)

By Invitation Only

A writing course for graduate students writing their first research publication.

Friday, November 6 > PASS: Giving a Dynamic Research Talk

noon-5:30 p.m. • N225 (Parnassus)

Basic Sciences & Clinical/Translational Researchers

Concerned about your next job talk, conference presentation or journal club talk? This workshop will help you improve your performance and delivery skills as well as your organization and PowerPoint skills.

Friday, November 6 > Pharmacy: Internship Resume Review Clinic

noon-5 p.m. • Location TBA

Pharmacy Students

The resume clinic for first- and second-year student pharmacists is a collaboration between APhA-ASP, PLS and OCPD. Students will have an opportunity to have their resume reviewed during 20 minute appointments.

Monday, November 9 > Pharmacy Career Fair

1:30-3:30 p.m. • Millberry Union Gym (Parnassus)

Pharmacy Students

The Career Fair is an opportunity for students to meet pharmacy employers and discuss career and internship opportunities. Sponsored by the School of Pharmacy.

Monday, November 16 > PFF: Negotiating Your Faculty Startup Package

3-5 p.m. • N225 (Parnassus) (simulcast to Genentech Hall, Mission Bay)

Pharmacy Students

In this last Preparing Future Faculty session, learn how the job offer and negotiation process works at research-intensive universities.

Monday, November 16 > Words From The Wise: MEPN Alumni Talk About Finding & Succeeding In, Their First RN Job

5:30-7 p.m. • N225 (Parnassus) (simulcast to Genentech Hall, Mission Bay)

Nursing Students

A panel of former MEPNs will share their perspective and offer advice on conducting a RN job search, applying and interviewing for positions, and working as a new RN.

Wednesday, November 18 > ADA Career Strategies for Third Years

noon-2 p.m. • HSW301 (Parnassus)

Dentistry Students

A dentist from ADA will facilitate a workshop on career decision-making. The program will include information on CV-writing, interviewing for clinical positions and specialty programs, evaluating employment opportunities and associateships and negotiating compensation. Cosponsored by ASDA.

Friday, November 20 > PASS: Presenting & Interpreting Statistics in Biomedical Research

12:30-2:30 p.m. • N225 (Parnassus)

Relevant to Multiple Populations

This seminar aims to raise clinicians' and researchers' awareness of errors they might encounter in the published literature or make in their own work. It will sharpen your critical skills; it will also help you brush up on statistical principles before a consultation with a statistician.